Town of Liberty, North Carolina

Charming Communities are found along North Carolina's beautiful back country, each with its own special qualities. But few reflect North Carolina's distinct, diverse, relaxed, and friendly personality like The Town of Liberty does. Liberty is a community rich with cultural diversity, beauty, and history. Whether you're looking for an interesting place to visit, a safe place to raise a family, a thriving area to locate a business, or just a quiet, friendly community in which to spend your retirement years, you'll find it in Liberty.

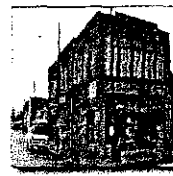

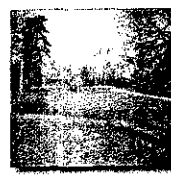

Liberty, the gateway to Randolph county, is a classic southern town offering the services and ammenities that make every visit a memorable experience.

A warm, small town atmosphere is reflected to this day, as Liberty continues to embrace family values, friendship and traditions. The Town of Liberty celebrates its past, its people and most importantly, its transition into the future.

Centrally located an easy twenty minute drive from Greensboro, Burlington, High Point, & Asheboro; Liberty's modernized highway system which includes US-421, NC 49, and the nearby NC 62, NC 64, & the recently completed Greensboro Belt Loop, make Liberty a destination everyone can get to.

Liberty offers you more to see and do on your next vacation, weekend getaway, or sunday drive. Discover Liberty & Discover The Real North Carolina.

What to Do and Where to Go in Liberty

From the world-class North Carolina Zoo to the Shops in historical downtown, Liberty offers an endless list of fantastic things to see and do, for both the first-time and the regular visitor. With so many options, it's best to plan your itinerary in advance, so you don't miss the attractions you really want to see. This website can help you do just that.

History buffs will enjoy Visiting Liberty's Patterson House Museum, re-living life in the south as it is still preserved there today. If you love the outdoors, have a picnic ride horseback over open meadows, or hike in one of our many beautiful town parks. For a more romantic getaway, indulge in a experience of a life time with a local bed and breakfast.

Spiritual speakers might find inspiration at one of the turn of the century churches in Liberty, or by walking the historic streets of Liberty Township. Shoppers discover something in every price range, with dozens of local treasures. Families traveling with the kids should check out our Family Fun Section for a list of great activities and attractions that enthrall adults and youngsters alike.

Liberty is also home to the Liberty Antiques' Festival. The festival, judged the Best Outdoor Show in the mid-Atlantic states by MidAtlantic Antiques Magazine brings thousands of visitors to Liberty, to stroll the grass "aisles" between the rows of booths during the two-day festival.

Staff Food Review, Kidd's Drive-Inn By B. Marion

Modern Food for a Southern Town

As you speed past the cashier at another drive-thru window, ever wonder what your parents and grandparents did before the days of the digital value menu? They probably visited the town burger joint, you know the one; #27; it had great service, a kitschy decor, and unparalleled, flavorful food that kept them coming back for years. Such a place is Kidd's Drive-In in the town of Liberty, NC.

Kidd's Drive-In offering its big beefy tastes and its curbside service has been a landmark restaurant in this small southern town for years. The "Chili Cheese Burger" makes this little stop a winner with locals making Kidd's their daily lunch stop. On any given day you can hear the wait-staff sing back hundreds of orders for this popular dish. Add sweet tea and an order of french fries, and Kidd's has secured itself as for the best burger joint Liberty.

Meal Recommendation:

Double Cheeseburger "All The Way" (Mustard, Chili, Onions, Slaw)

French Fries

Sweet Tea

Cost: Under 10.00 PP

Town of Liberty, History & Statistics

Liberty, altitude 790 feet, is a town in northeast Randolph County. It was incorporated in 1889 and was originally named "Liberty Oak" for the nearby plantation of John Leak who settled there in 1807. Of course "Liberty Oak" was a derived from "Liberty Tree" - a living symbol of popular support for individual liberty and resistance to tyranny; made popular by the "Sons of Liberty" and the hanging of tax collectors during the 1765 British Stamp Act Imposition in Boston. The area was first occupied by the Catawba Indians, a branch of the eastern Sioux tribe. During pre-Revolutionary War days, German, Scotch-Irish and English colonists settled in this area. Early references to a town called "Liberty" are mentioned in land transactions in the year 1809 to be found in preserved official records on file at Randolph County Courthouse in Asheboro. It is because of these findings that Liberty's town seal bears a picture of the "Liberty Oak" and has 1809 as a founding date, although the charter date is 1889. A rich part of Liberty's history is contained in the educational life of the community. As early as 1886 the Liberty Academy began operation. The school was supported by tuition paid by the students. At this time Liberty was known as an educational center and farming community. The railroad was the vital link that turned Liberty into a town, and the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway in its 1889 publication referred to Liberty as a place "where many contemplated and actual improvements evince a spirit of progress and enterprise. A fine school is established here, which for discipline and curriculum of study has already taken high rank among educational institutions of that section."

Message From Our Principals

A Note from Mr. Tanner:

Welcome to the Liberty School Home Page. As the principal of Liberty School, I am proud of our school's rich tradition. For the past two years, Liberty School has been designated a School of Distinction by the State of North Carolina. We are looking forward to another wonderful school year as our faculty and staff work together with parents, students and community to accomplish great academic growth. We want our students to always know that we are here for them.

We are enthusiastic about our wonderful 2003-2004 school year, and have been busy planning ways to improve Liberty School. Please stay in touch with your child's teacher and never hesitate to call with concerns or questions.

Be sure to check out our school calendar for upcoming events. We look forward to working with you!

A Note from Mrs. Feaster:

I'm Charlotte Feaster, the assistant principal at Liberty School. I assist our principal, Mr. Tanner with transportation, curriculum needs and student services.

Liberty School is a great place to be. It has a very nurturing environment. Children are free to learn, grown and develop their unique talents. Children can feel that they belong to a special school family at our school. I enjoy working with the students, teachers and parents at our wonderful school.
